NATURAL THERAPIES CERTIFICATION

BOARD NEWS

July 17, 2012

Coaching Update

The NTCW (Natural Therapies Coaching Workshops) Accreditation Board to increase the CEUs for the Basic Skills Workshop from 30 to 45 CEUs. This has been approved and will be implemented right away. Also, the CEUs for the Informed Consent Course (correspondence course) were increased from 10 to 20 CEUs starting June 1, 2012. The NTCB Blueprints have been updated to reflect the changes and instructors have been notified.

Also a gentle reminder that all Technicians must complete the Coaching Correspondence Course and Basic Skills Workshop in order to renew. This became effective July 1, 2011, and all members were notified of their 'Last Renewal' status in the letter enclosed with your renewal certificate.

Raindrop - Anatomy & Physiology

The following designations are required to have Anatomy & Physiology (30 CEU) as part of their training before applying for certification, effective October 1, 2012. Those currently holding the designations are grandfathered in (exceptions noted below), although they are strongly urged to take the coursework as part of continuing CEUs as a NTCB Professional. Basic A & P (if not previously taken in college, naturopathic training, massage training, etc.) is available from any NTCB approved organization or by taking the free course at NTCW (<http://ntcw.net>) and testing out.
