Books in Review:

The Escent-Oil Balance Manual

By Candace M. Hoke, BCRS-A
Approved NTCB Organization

This concise and comprehensive coil bound manual contains more than 300 8 1/2" x 11" pages of discussions, charts and illustrations to give an Essential Oil user or student a better understanding of any physical, mental, emotional or spiritual body's response to therapeutic grade essential oil applications to a specific point on its body. It does not matter if a body has 2 legs, 4 legs or none. Nor does it matter if a body has hands, paws, claws or hooves.

'Dowsing Beyond Duality: Access Your Power to Create Positive Change'

REFLEXOLOGY TRAINING

The Stone Institute Reflexology Course Supports Wounded Warrior Project At International Broadcast this Fall

Paula S. Stone, Executive Director, MA, BS-Ed, NCTMB, LMT, ARCB-CR, AAEd, AARC, CMR
NTCB Approved Organization

A live international, online conference will feature “Therapeutic Reflexology to Relieve Headache and Back Pain” on November 13, 2012. And, Wounded Warrior Project will receive a donation from the conference proceeds.

The event is World Massage Conference 2012. (See www.worldmassageconference.com) The fifth annual virtual conference will be the largest event in the history of massage and bodywork education, with more than 15,000 professional body workers from around the world already registered. The presenter is Paula S. Stone, executive director of The Stone Institute LLC™ and author of Therapeutic Reflexology: A Step-by-Step Guide to Professional Competence. Stone is a nationally certified massage therapist and NTCB credentialed CMR and CRI.

Reflexologists, massage therapists, professionals in natural therapies, and healthcare providers enjoy a live one-and-a half hour presentation. Topics include current perspectives on reflexology, unique features of therapeutic reflexology, and reflexology techniques to relieve headaches and back pain. Participants watch the presentation live, submit questions via Instant Messaging during the presentation, and chat with Stone personally online following her presentation.

All participants pay a nominal conference registration fee, which grants access to Stone's seminar and NTCB-continuing education (CE) units.

Wounded Warrior Project will receive a percentage of the enrollment fees from those who enroll through a special code. (Special link and code are available at www.TheStoneInstitute.org.) Participants log on from anywhere in the world.

“The Stone Institute is seeking supporters to make the conference a success for Wounded Warrior Project,” said Paula Stone. “No cost is involved – just spread the word. I look forward to working with associations, businesses, educators, healthcare professionals, and individuals. Together, we can make a difference in educating others about reflexology and make a difference for Wounded Warrior,” Stone said.

About Wounded Warrior Project

The vision of the Wounded Warrior Project is “to foster the most successful, well-adjusted generation of wounded service members in our nation's history.” The purpose is “to raise awareness and enlist the public's aid for the needs of injured service members; to help injured service members aid and assist each other; and to provide unique, direct programs and services to meet the needs of injured service members.” Source: www.woundedwarriorproject.org.

For information, email Ms. Stone at WWP@TheStoneInstitute.Org or call (636) 724-8686. To view and share, visit www.TheStoneInstitute.org and select Wounded Warrior Project under “Categories.” Follow the event on FaceBook, Twitter, Linked In, and YouTube. (Links at www.TheStoneInstitute.org.)

NOTICE

NTCB will be closed for the U.S Holiday – July 4th – 8th. May you remember and honor those who gave their lives in the name of freedom and celebrate with family and friends safely.
